Additional Ways to Recognize Your School

The following programs are free. Schools receive a certificate and recognition on the President's Challenge Web site, among other items.

President's Council on Physical Fitness and Sports Demonstration Center School

The PCPFS recognizes elementary and secondary schools that meet state physical education standards and clearly emphasize physical activity and fitness in their physical education program.

The PCPFS is pleased to partner with the American College of Sports Medicine (ACSM) on this initiative. A number of ACSM members serve as State Coordinators to help verify a school's commitment to physical activity and fitness. In order to qualify as a Demonstration Center, a school must ensure that students:

- Are active at least 60 minutes a day, in or out of school
- Receive instruction on the importance of physical activity and fitness
- Learn to be active in safe and healthy ways
- Learn skills that help ensure a lifetime of physical activity

Active Lifestyle Model School

Recognizes schools for promoting physical activity to students through the Presidential Active Lifestyle Award.

To be eligible:

- School must have an enrollment of 50 or more students
- At least 35% of the total enrollment must earn the PALA 2 or more times during the school year

Learn more and download an application by visiting the Teachers section on www.presidentschallenge.org and selecting School Recognition.
